

Privacy & Security Policy

Walking10000.org Programs is committed to protecting your privacy online. Your personal information is highly valued and we want you to know that everything possible is done to ensure the safety, security, and confidentiality of the information you provide to us.

Information Collections and Use

When you sign up for any Program, we will need your name, email, and company (if applicable) in order to add you to our mailing lists. Rest assured that Walking10000.org will never share or exchange your personal information with any other third party for any reason.

Security

We take precautions to protect your personal information both online and offline. Only employees who need the information you provide to perform a specific job are granted access to personally identifiable information. The computers/servers in which we store this information are kept in a secure environment.

Your Access to and Control Over Information

You may Un-Subscribe at any time from our email lists. Once you do this, we do not have the capability of re-adding you to any list. If your email address changes and you do not notify us of the change, you may be dropped from the list automatically due to the email being undeliverable. To be re-added to an email list you will need to call us or email us your request at the Info@ email for the list you are on. (See the information area on the email). You may also:
